

JOHNSTONS OF ELGIN

SINCE 1797

Employing over 800 employees, Johnstons of Elgin are one of Europe's most successful and innovative companies in the design and manufacture of luxury cashmere and fine woollen supplying to some of the most renowned fashion labels in the world.

We have a permanent full-time vacancy in our Design team in Elgin.

ACCESSORIES DESIGNER

We have an exciting opportunity for a textile design graduate to join our creative team in Elgin.

The successful candidate will report to the Creative Design Director and will be responsible for meeting and collaborating with customers in designing products to meet their needs.

We are looking for a commercially astute, creative designer who really understands our customers, and can bring newness and excitement into our range while retaining our distinctive handwriting.

The successful candidate will have experience in working within the woven textile industry, with the commercial confidence to liaise with customers at the luxury end of the business. You will be comfortable with travelling to major international trade shows, visiting key markets and be able to demonstrate strong team management skills with a results-led track record.

Reporting to the Creative Design Director you will bring creative flair and sound technical know-how in the development of collections, working to tight deadlines to achieve this whilst managing customer developments - knowledge of CAD is important to the role and jacquard experience would be useful. A high level of organisational and communication skills are essential with the ability to work closely with production. The successful candidate will be reliable and able to work on their own initiative within a team environment.
